AUGUST 12, 2018

Psalm 130

Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD.

Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications!

If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with you, so that you may be revered.

I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope;

my soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning, more than those who watch for the morning.

O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is great power to redeem.

It is he who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

1 Kings 19:4-8

But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the LORD came a second time, touched him. and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.

Out of the Depth

LYDIA SHIU

What are we to do with our pain?

- In your depths, cry out to the Lord. God can take it.
- Face your grief. Let the Dark Night of the Soul come. Welcome lament.
- Be gentle with your pain. Let it rest. Let it do its thing.

What does God do with our pain?

- In our times of despair, God offers us a nap and a snack.
- The loving mother God holds you, dries your tears, and cradles you in her arms.

What are we to do with the pain of others?

• Journey with those through grief and lament, with bread. Feed them.
