CHURCH

John 8:1-11, 15 (NRSV)

¹...Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him and he sat down and began to teach them. ³The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before all of them, ⁴they said to him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. ⁵Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?” ⁶They said this to test him, so that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. ⁷When they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” ⁸And once again he bent down and wrote on the ground. ⁹When they heard it, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. ¹⁰Jesus straightened up and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?” ¹¹She said, “No one, sir.” And Jesus said, “Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again.”

¹⁵“You judge by human standards; I judge no one”.

There’s No Wrong Way to Have a Body

Fifth in the Series “An Embodied Faith”

IVY ANTHONY

Try This:

1) A Tip for Whole Life Flourishing:

In what ways have you believed that your body is “not enough” or “too much”? Imagine that God, at every turn, celebrates your body and whispers to you that there is “no wrong way to have a body”. How does this impact the way you show up in the world and the way you witness others show up in the world?

1) Spiritual Practice of the Week:

“Tear off the mask. Your face is glorious.” - Rumi

When you look in the mirror this week, imagine Jesus’ reflection looking back at you - with your eyes, your hair, your skin, your smile, your blood, your bones, your body. Fully glorious.
