CHURCH

Hebrews 11:8-16 (CEB)

⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was going to receive as an inheritance. He went out without knowing where he was going.

⁹By faith he lived in the land he had been promised as a stranger. He lived in tents along with Isaac and Jacob, who were coheirs of the same promise. ¹⁰He was looking forward to a city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹By faith even Sarah received the ability to have a child, though she herself was barren and past the age for having children, because she believed that the one who promised was faithful. ¹²So descendants were born from one man (and he was as good as dead). They were as many as the number of the stars in the sky and as countless as the grains of sand on the seashore.

¹³All these people died in faith without receiving the promises, but they saw the promises from a distance and welcomed them. They confessed that they were strangers and immigrants on earth. ¹⁴People who say this kind of thing make it clear that they are looking for a homeland. ¹⁵If they had been thinking about the country that they had left, they would have had the opportunity to return to it. ¹⁶But at this point in time, they are longing for a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God isn't ashamed to be called their God—he has prepared a city for them.

Let's Take a Pilgrimage: Spiritual Formation on a Budget

STEVE WATSON

Try This:

1) An Invitation to Whole Life Flourishing:

Notice any ways your life is fundamentally not working. Don't try to fix it just yet, just notice with curiosity.

2) Spiritual Practice of the Week:

Ask God each day this week how it is you need greater connection and life. Tell God that this Lent, you plan to be on pilgrimage to find what you need.
