LOVE IS KNOWING
AND BEING KNOWN

STEVE WATSON

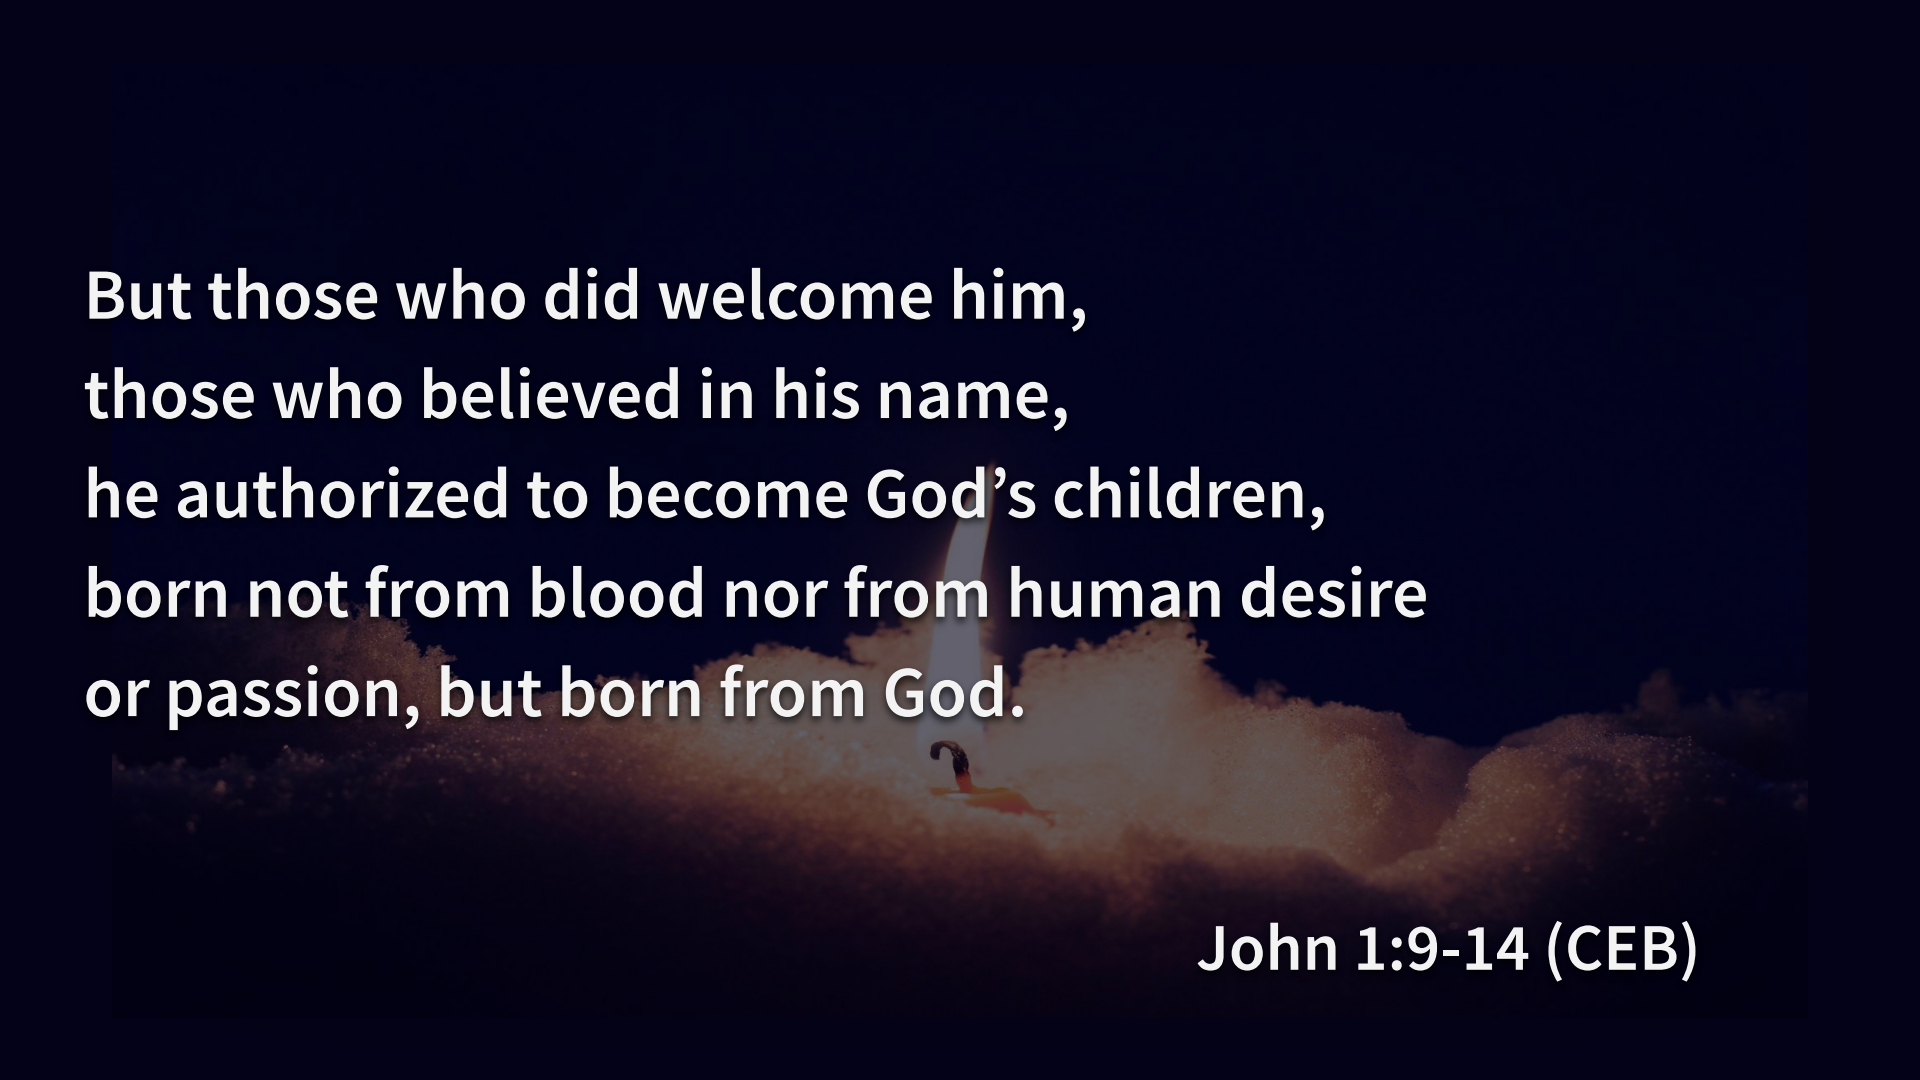

The true light that shines on all people
was coming into the world.

The light was in the world,
and the world came into being through the light,
but the world didn't recognize the light.

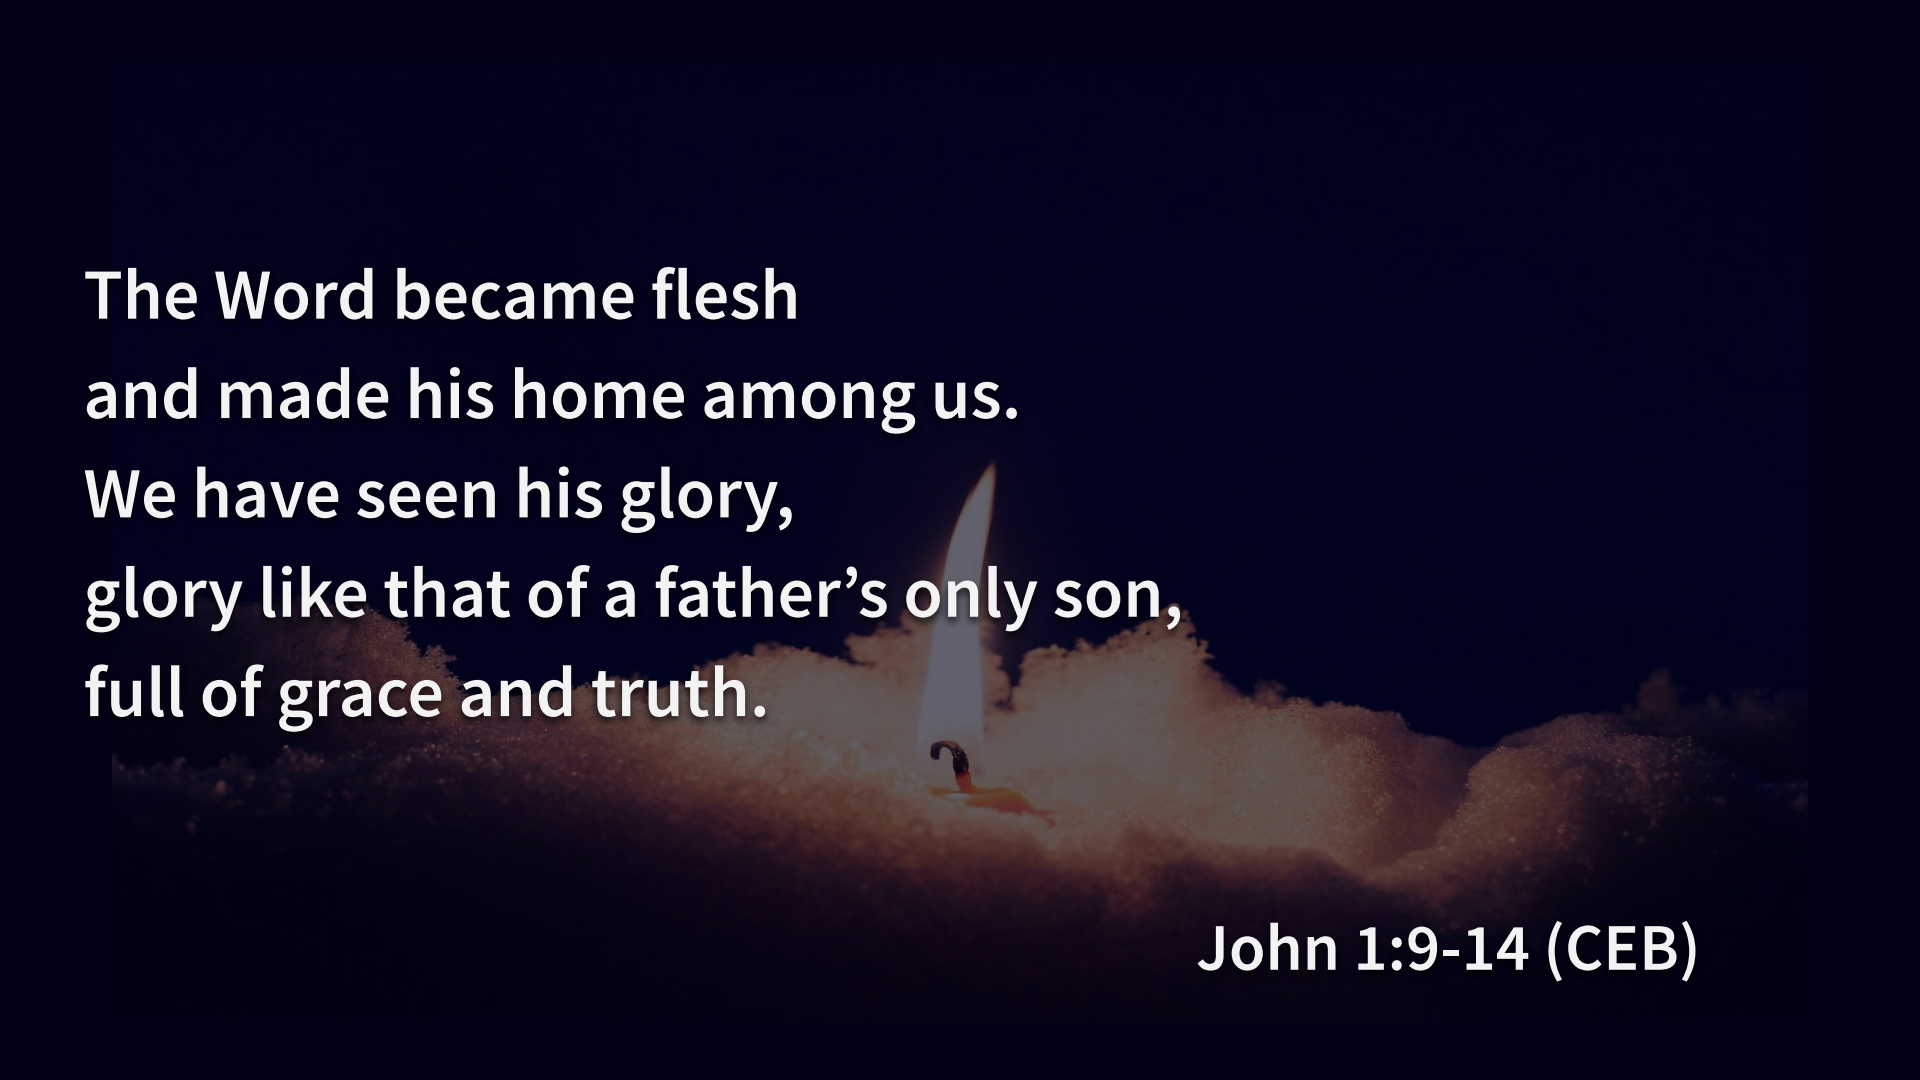

The light came to his own people,
and his own people didn't welcome him.

John 1:9-14 (CEB)

A person in a small boat is seen on a dark sea at night. A bright, glowing light emanates from the sky, illuminating the scene and creating a path of light on the water. The overall atmosphere is dramatic and spiritual.

But those who did welcome him,
those who believed in his name,
he authorized to become God's children,
born not from blood nor from human desire
or passion, but born from God.

John 1:9-14 (CEB)

A lit candle with a flame, set against a dark background with a soft, glowing light source behind it. The candle is positioned in the lower right quadrant of the image, and its flame is bright and yellow. The background is dark, with a soft, glowing light source behind the candle, creating a halo effect. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

The Word became flesh
and made his home among us.
We have seen his glory,
glory like that of a father's only son,
full of grace and truth.

John 1:9-14 (CEB)

Timothy my coworker says hello to you, and Lucius Jason and Sosipater, my relatives. I'm Tertius, and I'm writing this letter to you in the Lord—hello! Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church says hello to you. Erastus the city treasurer says hello to you, along with our brother Quartus.

Romans 16:21-23 (CEB)
